Objective
Statutory objective of the organisation. What does the organisation seek to achieve?

EYFA empowers young people, especially those facing systemic barriers such as racialisation, gender discrimination, disability, migration status, or socioeconomic inequality, to organise for socio-ecological justice across Europe. EYFA's bjectives are:

- Capacity-building for youth-led initiatives;
- Provide Non-Formal Education and skills development for marginalised youth;
- Strengthen grassroots movements for environmental and social justice;
- Support for intersectional and inclusive organising;
- Promote of civic participation to reduce inequality in Europe;
- Facilitate EU cross-regional cooperation among and between youth grassroots groups.

Outline of the policy plan
Please answer the questions below or provide an URL to the policy plan after the last question about the policy plan.
The online policy plan should at least provide answers to the questions about the policy plan asked here.

What are the institution's activities? When are which acitvities to be carried out? And how do the activities contribute to achieving the institution's objective?

EYFA supports youth-led grassroots initiatives across Europe working on social and environmental justice. The organisation's activities include:

-Organising trainings, seminars, network gatherings, and spaces for young people and youth-led groups

-Facilitating non-formal education activities focused on civic engagement, organisational skills, and political education

-Providing capacity building support to grassroots initiatives (e.g. facilitation, fundraising knowledge, organisational development)

How does the organisation generate income or revenue?

EYFA's income consists primarily of:

1) Grants and subsidies from public institutions, including European and national funding programmes

2) Project-based funding from foundations and institutional donors

3) Occasional donations

EYFA does not operate for profit and does not distribute income to private individuals.

How and for what purposes are the revenues spent?
If your organisation holds capital, please fill in here where and how this capital is held (e.g. savings account, investments, etc.)

EYFA's revenues are spent exclusively on activities that serve its public benefit and non profit objectives. Expenditures include:
- Organisation and facilitation of trainings, gatherings, and educational activities, and support costs for grassroots initiatives and network activities (≈30%).
- Personnel costs for staff coordinating projects and administrative tasks (≈60%).
- Operational costs such as office expenses, communication, travel, and accessibility measures (≈10%).

Continuity reserves or capital held by the organisation are maintained to ensure financial continuity and stability and are kept in a bank savings account. EYFA does not engage in speculative investments.
